How He Swindled the Reading, Mich., Bank of $3,000. Reading, Mich., Aug. 19.—The bank of Reading has been swindled in a clever manner. Early last week a business like appearing man walked into the bank and told the cashier that he was selling groceries at wholesale to farmers through that section and wanted to know if the bank would purchase such notes as he should get from the farmers. Mr. Northrop, the cashier, answered him in the affirmative and the stranger departed. On Thursday the "grocery agent" called upon Walter A. Jones, a farmer, living in the south part of Allen township, and displayed samples of groceries which he was selling to farmers at extraordinary low prices. Mr. Jones went through the list and gave him an order for about $41.00 worth of goods.

WHY NOT ARBITRATE?

Mr. Powderly's Letter to Vice President Webb,

AND THE REPLY OF THE LATTER.

He Declines to Submit the Matter to Arbitration, and Says the Men Were Not Discharged Because They Were Knights of Labor—He Claims That the Road Now Has Its Full Quota of Men at Work—Along the Line. New York, Aug. 19.—The envelope headed to Vice President Webb Monday by Messrs. Holland and Wright contained a letter to the former, in which Master Workman Powderly stated that he understood that old and faithful employees of the road had been discharged because they were Knights of Labor. The men believed this if they were discharged for good and sufficient cause no right-minded man could say a word but if that were so an investigation would do no harm on the contrary, it would put the company in a better light. It was certainly not too much for the organization to which the men belonged to ask to know why the members were discharged. If, however, the men were discharged because they were Knights of Labor, there was nothing to arbitrate. The question of a legal strike was not involved. The question of the right of men to organize for their own protection. The men in this case were patriots. So were the railway managers. In this case, therefore, why not arbitrate? The men were willing to submit the matter to arbitration. Mr. Webb's Reply. Mr. Webb's letter was brief. It consisted of a few lines of text. It was a reply to the letter of Mr. Powderly. A CANDIDATE FOR HEMP.

He Tries to Kill His Father-in-Law and Causes Calamity Generally.

CARROLL BLUFFS, Ills., Aug. 19.—Albert Evans played the desperado here for several hours Monday and ran things with a high hand. Not long ago he married the daughter of Charles Cushman and since then he has lived with his wife's family. Quarrels have been frequent, and Monday Evans in a fit of rage seized a shotgun and fired at Cushman without hitting him. Cushman rushed out into the yard, and Evans attacked him with a razor, inflicting several deep cuts upon his arm and hand. He then grabbed a club and pursued Cushman about the farm until the arrival of neighbors put him to flight. Shortly he set Cushman's barn on fire. It was one of the largest barns in the county and was completely destroyed. Three horses and several head of cattle perished in the flames, and a large amount of hay, corn and agricultural implements was destroyed. Farmers in the neighborhood armed themselves with pitchforks, shotguns and ropes and set out to capture Evans with the avowed determination of lynching him but he escaped. He made his way to Rock Island and gave himself up to the police. He is now in jail and appears to be insane.

According to his story he was stolen by gypsies who took him to Wisconsin. He was raised by his captors and oftentimes had been beaten and threatened with death. About fifteen years ago Hiram married and his gypsy foster mother disappeared. Hiram and his wife took up their residence at Richwood, Okla. county, Wis., where they lived until a few years ago. They were then received by Hiram telling him his real name and that his mother was living near Moline. This led to an investigation which resulted in the meeting. It is presumed that the letter was written by one of the gypsies in a fit of remorse.

LIVERPOOL.

The tariff debaser who lives on South Water now informs the world that it is necessary for the tariff reformer "to bob around and change his assumptions from time to time in order to reach the result he wishes to obtain." The South Water man has had an experience in this line that makes him authority, and so it is with considerable hesitation THE REVIEW denies that it has ever veered or tacked while discussing this question.

Now why does the high protectionist charge that others have changed their ground of attack? The history of his case is pretty well known, and it would seem that he should be the last man in the world to insinuate that inconsistency is not a virtue. If it is a vice, then the cause of high protection has earned capital punishment for itself long before now.

The people are certainly tolerably fami-lar with the different grounds on which high tariff taxes have been asked. There was a time in the history of the country when those taxes were asked for the protection of infant industries. The statement then was that if those infants were withdrawn for a few years from the storms of the commercial world, they would grow strong and be able to take a place in the front rank of the great strife. We know what the result has been. Those infants have had their protection in varying quantities for a hundred years. They now come up and ask for more than they ever had. The proprietors of those industries now confess that they are weaker than when born. This confession is made when the proprietors go to McKinley and ask him for a still further increase in the amount of protection.

This result is not strange. It was foreseen by many men when protection began.
"Protect the infants" was a plausible plea, but it did not pass without challenge. A writer nearly a century ago said: "A nation's true policy is to relieve itself of paying tribute to other nations, but to do so without the humiliating assistance of custom houses and prohibitory laws. Manufacturing industry depends solely on itself; competition is its life. Protect it and it goes to sleep; it dies from monopoly as well as from tariff." You can read the demands that have been made on the present Congress, and then say how near that writer came to the truth.

You had just as well take a plant from the tropics and prepare it for the rigor of a Northern winter by giving it a course in one of our hot houses, as to try to harden an industry by protection so it will stand alone in the battle the world is waging.

Even the protectionists have seen that the old story of shelter for the infants is played out. They are now hunting other reasons to present to the lawmakers. These reasons are as varied as the spots on the sun. You can pick up the republican papers to-day and find probably a hundred.
If you could break into the private consultations of some of the great trusts that now adorn this country, you would probably hear a hundred more reasons that do not look well in print. If you should ask THE Rep for a statement of the law on which protection rests, you would probably get an answer that would be violently denied by another protection journal in Chicago. It might be that you would get no answer at all. In spite of all this THE Rep does not hesitate to speak of others bobbing around and changing their assumptions. It is as near the genius of impudence as shameless boldness can ever be.

Now when has the tariff reformer ever changed his tack? More than a hundred years ago he said that each man should be allowed to sell in the dearest and buy in the cheapest market. He says the same thing to-day. This is bobbing and changing assumptions, then. The Rep had better take up the review of said.

The Review said in substance, as reported by THE Rep, "It is not essential to the success of the cause of tariff reform to hold that Liverpool fixes the price of the products of our American farms." THE Rep then states that THE REVIEW held that free trade gave the English farmer the best market in the world. THE REVIEW stated that the best market for those products was to be found in England. That was a fact found in this discussion. It was put at the farmer to show him that he could have such a thing as a good market without paying a bounty. We now say that the strength of the tariff reformer's cause is independent of any price in the Liverpool market. THE Rep calls this an extraordinary tack. We would like to see the process of reasoning that shows an inconsistency in the two statements.

The law of commercial liberty, that finds expression in the widest competition, would be written in just the same words if there were no Liverpool on earth. It was great before Liverpool was thought of. Liverpool is great because it has complied with that law. The tariff reformer points with pride to Liverpool. But that town is only a result of the law. It is an effect, not the cause. We feel that an adoption and an extension of the economical policy that has made Liverpool great will make a dozen places in our country still greater. The advantages which nature planted are on our side. Liverpool's market is now the greatest in the world. We stand by that statement. But ours can be made greater. So far we have tagged behind the Liverpool market. If we have only a moderate degree of wisdom, our market can be put at the world's front. That we have pursued the wrong course so far was conclusively shown when the manufacturers asked for still higher duties. That demand showed that the distance between our weakness and England's strength is growing greater.
It was a confession an American should have been ashamed to make.

THE REP quotes from a speech of Mr.
Mills to the effect that no one was ever fool enough to answer that a foreign market is better than a home market. THE Rep thinks this was a notice to the democrats to change their plan of reasoning. We would like to know where the notice comes in? Of course the home market is better, if you have one. There is the nub of the thing.

But why doesn't THE Rep quote all Mr.
Mills had to say at that time, even all he had to say in that one sentence? He went on with his question by further asking, who would be fool enough to deny that the home market and the foreign market are better than the home market alone? This was no new statement on Mr. Mills' part.
It has been the idea of his public life. How could he serve notice on democrats to change when there was no change in his own course? The trouble with you South Water fellows is that when you can't find changes, you supply your wishes by imagining some.
If the readers will only keep cool and examine critically what is set before them, all will be well.

SOME days ago THE New York Sun stated that the question in Maine was, "the black sash—or the white plume?" When the question was stated to Mr. Blaine, he advanced to show that the adornment of the head was away ahead of any ornamental bellyband.

SULLIVAN'S NEW RAILROAD.

It is a Certainty and Property is Going Up—After No.

Special Correspondence to THE REVIEW.
It is now almost an assured fact that the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway's extension will be built through this fall. This will give us through connection between St.
Louis, by way of the Big Four from Shelby-ville. A crew of surveyors is now in the field, having passed through here last Monday. All the company asks of this county is the right of way, while Shelby county guarantees the right of way and $1,000 per mile, whether to Shelbyville or Ocoee.

As the probability of the road's completion assumes more promising aspects, the interest in the matter increases and the people are becoming more alive to the benefits to be derived from such a line. City real estate is also advancing on the prospective boom, but only judicious advances has been so far—no bubble fever being at all likely. Several meetings have been held, and committees to secure the right of way appointed. Probably something more definite will be reported next week.

BARN BURNED.
James T. Elliott's barn was struck by lightning to-day (Tuesday) and entirely consumed by fire. Fortunately he had his team brought out at the time, so his loss is comparatively light. The barn was the property of E. M. Pedro and is an entire loss.

THE FAIR.
The 33d annual meeting of the Moultrie County Agricultural society opens Sept. 1.
All indications are that the fair will be no exception to the general rule and will be a success so far as exhibits and races are concerned.

OUR NORMAL.
The Moultrie county normal will close next Friday, this week being devoted to the institute work proper. The attendance this year averaged 117 teachers, the largest on record.

OTHER NOTES.
Isaac Hudson is visiting in Chicago this week.
C. B. Prescott, of Decatur, is doing Sullivan up this week.

A. H. Antrim, of Decatur, did business here last Monday.

Judge Eden is putting waterworks in his bath, the Eden house.

James Milligan, of Decatur, is doing business here this week.

The Sullivan baseball club goes to Charleston next Thursday to play a game with the local club.
C. H. Kellar, of Beatrice, Neb., is visiting the family of his father, Dr. A. L. Kellar, of this city.

We have not had a good rain since the 17th of June, and only three light showers during that time.
Our police have very little to do, the town being almost entirely free from toughs and drunks, although we have four saloons and three drug stores.
Broom corn harvest has opened up and many of our farmers are employing from 20 to 30 men to assist them. A great deal of broom corn is grown in this county.
Charlie Ferguson has sold his elegant new residence, built last year, and has commenced the erection of a new one, which will be handsomer than the one he now occupies.
Our town is improving rapidly again this year. Two new business blocks now in course of erection on the square, and quite a number of residences are in the hands of contractors.

County court law term, is in session this week, Judge Twadell presiding. This, probably, is our young judge's last term, as he will remove to Decatur soon, to take charge of the new elevator in which he is interested.

interest of the Champaign county nursery.

William Armstrong, C. F. James and Odd Fellowship Saturday night in the Argenta lodge. This is a prosperous lodge and is growing in membership and interest.

C. F. James sold his 80 acres of land west $55 an acre. If he had delayed the sale 10 minutes another man would have paid $80

Sunday of J. W. Patterson and family.

They returned home Monday accompanied by Mrs. Patterson, as far as Decatur.

Cutter store of furniture, and has already taken possession. Rufus is a young man well and favorably known by the entire community, and we bespeak for him a good his wife.

Beginning with Tuesday morning there will be six trains daily between Monticello and Decatur during the fair. Trains will pass Argenta for Monticello at 10:55 a. m., leave Monticello at 8:19 a. m., 12:05 p. m. and 6 p. m. A large attendance is expected on them here.

Instant Relief.

The great merit of Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is its instantaneous action. One does not have to take it a month before one perceives its good effects. A single dose often produces beneficial results, while a bottle will cure the worst cold.
When there is chronic difficulty it is best to persevere in taking it until a permanent cure is effected but it is certain to help the very worst cases if persisted in. It is unrivalled in this particular. Every one who has once taken it is satisfied with it, and this is one of its strongest recommendations.

In lumbago, a pain in the back, it acts at once, and relieves the sufferer. The sudden change in the summer, caused by the severe storms that set in from the northwest, are greatly provocative of colds that show themselves in colic, diarrhoea, bilious attacks etc. Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure at once relieves the patient and checks the malady.

In all cases of this kind it is simply invaluable. No household should be without it, because a dose taken at the beginning of a difficulty will restore tone to the system and enable the stomach to throw off the morbid poison that is irritating it. There is neither morphine, opium, nor any other poison in it so that there is no after effects to overcome; on the contrary the whole digestive and circulatory system is in better shape to resist disease than it was before. A bottle of this great remedy should therefore be kept always at hand. It is invaluable for invalids.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

What is the difference to the buyer of boots and shoes whether we are selling now at less than cost of manufacture simply to unload, or because we want the cash or because we are unloading a wholesale stock or any other reason. The only question which the provident man can ask himself is, am I actually getting bargains such as will not be soon offered again? We assure you upon our word and by the goods and prices we offer that this is precisely the case.

It is a Fact That everything which goes into the make up of a shoe has been recently advanced so greatly that it will be utterly impossible for the manufacturers to make the next year's supply so cheap.

It is a Fact That higher cost of manufacture means greater cost to jobber, greater cost to the retailer and greater cost to the consumer.

It is a Fact That, notwithstanding these truths which no intelligent shoe dealer can deny, The Ferriss & Lapham shoe store has entered upon a big sacrifice sale.

It is a Fact That the prices made and the goods offered in this sale are such as will open the eyes of every shoe buyer who knows what he is doing.

It is a Fact That the intelligent people of Decatur and the surrounding towns have learned that when we advertise bargains we have them, and they are coming by scores and hundreds every day to improve this last opportunity to get shoes at less than cost of manufacture.

It is a Fact That we are not offering only a few baits, but are making the cut general all around the stock.

Sample of Cut Prices:

- Ladies shoes at $1 which you will pay $1.75 for elsewhere. Ladies shoes at $1.25 that cost $2 elsewhere.
- Ladies' Dongola Oxford, patent trim, wood heel, our former price was $2. We will sell it hereafter at $1, and it is the best bargain ever offered in this line in Decatur.
- Ladies' Russet Oxfords for $1, our former price $1.75 and $2.25, and that was below what other dealers charged you for goods of like quality.
- Men's $2.50 Russet Oxford, at $1.50. Here's a bargain and no mistake.
- Men's $3 Russet Bals at $1.65—how's that for a cut.
- Ladies' $3 hand sewed shoes at $2.25; better buy them, they are dirt cheap.
- Men's Calf Shoes in Congress and lace, were very cheap at $2.50. Will sell them now for $2. How does this strike you?
- Men's calf boots, all solid, we have sold them at $2.50, and they were a bargain at that figure. We will close them out now at $1.75. They can't be produced at the factory for the money.
- A better grade of Men's Calf Boots, we have sold them regularly at $3. You can buy them now at $2.25. Buy a pair and put them away for future use.
- All our men's calf shoes which have been sold at $2.50, and $3 and all finer grades will be offered at less money than they can be secured for at any place in this city or elsewhere.
- Ladies' Black Wigwam slippers at 40 cents—have been selling regularly at $1. The present selling price is away below the wholesale cost figure. In the language used on the race tracks, Come Now.

We are going to turn this stock into money, and we can't again quote these prices we offer now. If you neglect this opportunity you won't get shoes so cheap again because we can't buy them so cheap again. Come this week and buy a supply of shoes for a year at the great

PROHIBS IN ADVANCE.
THEY CAME OUT WITH A FULL COUNTY TICKET.

The "Step in Advance" Taken by Naming a Lady for a Public Office—Only One Temperance Speech—A Tent Campaign Talked Of—New Central Committee Of- ficers.

For county judge, T. A. Fritchett; For county clerk, George Connard; For county treasurer, J. R. Gorn; For sheriff, J. A. Wilson; For superintendent, Miss Mary C. Gregory.

The prohibition county convention yesterday at the court house was attended by about 25 prohibitionists, all of whom were delegates. The meeting was as notable for its harmony as it was for the utter absence of anything like a scramble for the offices. The ticket printed above was nominated.

W. C. Outten took the chair, called the meeting to order, and announced that it was an adjourned session of the meeting held some time ago.

W. E. Mann was made secretary. It was decided to be unnecessary to have a committee on credentials. All prohibitionists present were requested to go inside the railing, and thereby constitute themselves delegates to the convention.

Mr. Bunn thought it was unnecessary to have a committee appointed or much preliminary work, as they had already had several conventions and adopted various resolutions. Therefore he moved that the convention proceed at once to make nominations without a committee. That was carried.

Nominations for county judge were then in order, and Thomas A. Fritchett, of Decatur, and R. D. Ward, of Blue Mound, were named.

Fritchett received 14 votes and Ward 10, making Mr. Fritchett the candidate for judge.

George Connard, of Wheatland township, was presented by J. M. Dawson, for county clerk, with the remark that he was a very competent man, a born clerk, and a man who would fill the office with credit to himself and his party, and electors.

There were no other candidates, and the secretary cast the unanimous vote of the convention for Mr. Connard.

The office of treasurer did not seem to hold out many inducements to the prohibitors, as there was quite a pause when the question of filling the vacancy soon to occur in that office was taken up. Finally J. R. Gorn, of Decatur, and Frederic Nientker, of Boody, were proposed.

Mr. Gorn was nominated by a vote of 19, while 6 votes were cast for Mr. Nientker.

James A. Wilson, of Decatur, was named for sheriff by D. L. Bunn. Mr. Wilson got up and said he could not accept the nomination, but he thought it had been arranged that he was not to be nominated. He was doubtful about his ability to fill the responsible position offered him.

Mr. Outten, chairman of the convention, told Mr. Wilson it was too late, he was nominated, and had to take the honor, without saying more about it. Here was a long wait while Mr. Outten went over to Mr. Wilson and talked to him privately. Evidently there was a man who had to have greatness thrust upon him. Finally the question was called for, the chairman returned to his seat, and Mr. Wilson was nominated by acclamation.

Chairman Outten then stated that he had by request called upon Miss Gregory to ask her if she would accept the nomination for county superintendent of schools. She at first would not consider the suggestion, preferring the peace and quiet of her school work to the responsibilities of a public office. She, however, was interested in the cause of prohibition, and finally agreed that if, as Mr. Outten thought, her candidacy would help the cause, then she would accept the nomination. She added, though, that if she thought for a minute that she should be elected to the office, she most certainly would not have the nomination.

Mr. Outten therefore named Miss Gregory for the office of superintendent, with a statement of her qualifications for the position. D. L. Bunn followed with remarks to the effect that the prohibition party claimed to be more advanced than any other party, no lady had ever before nominated for county office, so far as he knew, and it was time that the prohibitionists took a step in advance by naming a lady, than whom none were more worthy than Miss Gregory.

Her nomination was then made by acclamation.

The resignation of A. F. Smith as chairman of the county central committee, was presented, that gentleman stating by letter that he would not be here during the campaign. J. M. Dawson was chosen as Mr. Smith's successor.

After some discussion as to who was secretary, or whether there was any secretary or not, W. E. Mann was made secretary of the county committee.

REVIEW POSTOFFICE.
Here is a Location.
EDITOR REVIEW—Now that Decatur has the assurance of the G. A. R. Memorial Hall, would it not be in order to select a proper site to build it on? In speaking of the matter the other day, Frank Wood said, "Well, I have got an elegant place, plenty large enough and dry at the corner of South Main and Wood streets, and I think it the best location for this grand edifice in Decatur—in the very heart of the city, handy to the hotels, our handsome Grand Opera House, and on the line of the best street railway system in the U. S."

S. B. M. E. S. Tongs.
EDITORS REVIEW—The people on East Marietta are raising a howl about a gang of loughs, ranging from 12 to 20 years old. They steal fruit, hang around the electric light and commit nuisances in general. The officers ought to attend to the matter.

Plenty of Bananas.
After another banana famine, caused by the delay in cargo shipments, the firm of G. W. Ehrhart & Co. take pleasure in announcing to the trade that they received yesterday a car of the very finest quality of bananas, and will henceforward be ready to fill all orders promptly. Mr. Ehrhart has just returned from a trip through the north and west, where he went for the purpose of contracting for potatoes. He was very successful, making some extensive contracts, and he has yet to see a city with as much genuine business bustle as Decatur. George is a hustler himself, and it takes a pretty lively place to satisfy him. As soon as the banana rush is over he will be ready to talk potatoes.

Back from the East.
Mrs. K. Einstein has just returned from her Eastern trip, and during her absence visited New York, and while there selected her fall and winter millinery stock, consisting of all the latest styles of goods in the market. These goods will be here, and ready for inspection by September 7th.

A cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies in Decatur, to come and examine these goods.
